Western nion sold down to 75, St. Paul 79%, New England to 38, and on. These figures, however, were only lift a point or so below yesterday's closing, dit soon dawned upon the minds of the liers that some strong party or parties are quietly absorbing all stocks that are being offered. Then came the attempt cover, with the usual result of a quiek se. Some of the shrewd traders in the om turned quickly and helped the build-g-up process. Charlie Johnes, who has the mek of changing front a dozen nes a day when the condition of the arket calls for such ground and fity tumbling, took hold of Missouri Pacific di had it up from 88% to 90 in a twinkling. estern Union, St. Paul, New England and, fact, all the active shares rallied in mpsthy, and thus, despite all the gloomy rebodings. The buils really carried the y. How long it will last it is simply impatible to say, so many are the uncertains just now surrounding the situation. It is a process of the market away from the bears to-day, so the process.

Tipe From "The Evening World's" Ticker.
Another weak opening this morning all around.
The Treasury now holds $31, $45,000 bonds for the security of Government deposits.
A Bull leader says to-day: "We're all right; the bears will be unable to make much progress while time money remains as easy as at present."

The immense crowds that thronged our establishment yesterday and to-day to take advantage of the turers, 402 Broadway, sold at Sheriff's Sa at 25 cents on the dollar, greatly exceeded out expectations, and though we had 75 sales expectations, and though we had 75 salesmen in our Cloak Department, we found them altogether inadequate to wait upon half the customers, and for want of space we colud only show a portion of the goods. We therefore regret our inability to wait on all, and hereby announce that on Wednesday morning, Oct. 26, we will have on an extra force of salesmen, and have the goods arranged so that every one can be waited on without delay. The wonderful bargains at this mammoth sale astonishes the best judges.
